

Please do not weaken Wisconsin's no-call list. Any attempt to do so can only be viewed as "big government" bowing to special interests rather than protecting the rights of the average person.